

HAYMAN SERIES

The Hayman Series exudes modern simplicity in pool design.

Introducing the Stunning Hayman Series – a stunning new release in our fibreglass pool collection that embodies the essence of modern elegance and functionality. With its sleek rectangular design, the Hayman Series captures the sophisticated look of traditional concrete pools while offering the unique benefits of fibreglass. The standout feature of this range is its expansive entry steps that span the entire width of the pool, seamlessly blending style with practicality.

With bench seating running the full length of the pool which helps on its close proximity to houses and structures close by & also offers the option of extended seating with spa jet options. Discover the Hayman Series – where modern design meets timeless enjoyment.
